

THE ROCK

Rock Solid News from the week of May 9th, 2011.

What a Week!

We had two very exciting events occur this week. Thursday evening our school came together for our annual Fine Arts Festival. It was a great time for the students of St. Peter's to showcase their God-given talents. It was an AMAZING time of dancing, singing, playing instruments, and displaying works of art the children have created. It was incredibly impressive!

Friday, we celebrated Grandparents Day. We had a wonderful turn out and were able to meet many extended family members of our friends here at St. Peter's. It was great to see the kids beaming with pride as they introduced their grandparent or special friend. Thank you to everyone who joined us for that special event! Please come back to see us sometime soon!

Please enjoy the pictures in our newsletter that show a snippet of the excitement from the past 2 days!

Excuses. I've got 'em.

"I'm too tired! I'll do it tomorrow!" And my personal favorite, the traditional, "I would, but I'm just SO busy!"

How about you? What is your excuse for why you haven't given ample time to God?

No matter the excuse, it's lame. That's right, LAME-O! Who are we kidding?! We don't have TIME for God?! We're too tired?! God has blessed us with our life and everything in it. To say we have no time for Him is just ridiculous, yet we do it all the time.

I'm a firm believer in that you make time for what is important to you. Is food important to us? Yes, and we somehow find time to eat! How about TV shows? Are there certain ones we just can't miss? You better believe we find a way to squeeze them in! My point is, we DO have the time; we've just chosen not to prioritize it the way we should. Time with God should be at the top of our list. Instead of squeezing God in when we can, how about we put Him first and then squeeze in all the other stuff?

I'm going to keep working at this and I pray you do too. Let's get our priorities in order so we can give God the time He deserves!
